CW Eucharistic Readings & Prayers today

COLLECT

Everlasting God, our maker and redeemer, grant us, with all the faithful departed, the sure benefits of your Son's saving passion and glorious resurrection, that, in the last day, when you gather up all things in Christ, we may with them enjoy the fullness of your promises; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

READING Wisdom 3.1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace. For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them. In the time of their visitation they will shine forth, and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever. Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

READING 1 Peter 1.3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! By his great mercy he has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you, who are being protected by the power of God through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. In this you rejoice, even if now for a little while you have had to suffer various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith—being more precious than gold that, though perishable, is tested by fire may be found to result in praise and glory and honour when Jesus Christ is revealed. Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, for you are receiving the outcome of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (All Saints only)

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, called out of darkness into his marvellous light.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia

GOSPEL John 6.37-40

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day.'

POST COMMUNION

God of love, may the death and resurrection of Christ which we have celebrated and this eucharist bring us, with the faithful departed, in to the peace of your eternal home. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ, our rock and our salvation, to whom be glory for time and for eternity.

Amen

Thank-you letter from Restoring Hands

Dear wonderful people at Church,

Restoring Hands would like to say a massive thank you for the generous donation of your harvest food to our bank!

We have been providing food to families in need in the Maidstone community for almost 10 years now and our food bank is open twice a week for referrals. But it is the people like you who support us who keep things going and our door open! Very often we find heart-breaking family situations when people come to us and where a bag of food might not solve all the issues; it means so much more than just a few days to not go hungry. It means also someone cares. I am not alone in this. There is hope. We wish you could see the tears on a Mum's face who hasn't been able to afford packed lunches for the children or the excitement of the little ones about a few treats. Or the relief that there are now enough nappies for the baby.

Thank you for helping us to reach out to people in poverty and need in Maidstone by re-stocking our shelves.

May this blessing return back to your lives!

Kind regards

Restoring Hands
